

I a S

... ..

I a Ma

1. Introduction

1. The first part of the report is the Introduction.
2. The second part of the report is the Literature Review.
3. The third part of the report is the Methodology.

The first part of the report is the Introduction. The Introduction is the first part of the report and it is where you introduce your topic to the reader. It is where you state the purpose of your research and the objectives of your study.

The second part of the report is the Literature Review. The Literature Review is where you review the existing research on your topic. It is where you identify the gaps in the literature and justify your research.

The third part of the report is the Methodology. The Methodology is where you describe the methods you used to collect and analyse your data. It is where you explain how you conducted your research and why you chose the methods you used.

The fourth part of the report is the Results. The Results is where you present the findings of your research. It is where you show the data you collected and what you found.

2. Introduction

The first part of the report is the Introduction. The Introduction is the first part of the report and it is where you introduce your topic to the reader. It is where you state the purpose of your research and the objectives of your study.

Business Studies

The first part of the report is the Introduction. The Introduction is the first part of the report and it is where you introduce your topic to the reader. It is where you state the purpose of your research and the objectives of your study.

– Business Studies (2013) 3

–

- 3613
- 4606 200
- 4213
- 4223
- 4 13
- 4 23

Media Studies

2 3.

Medieval Studies

18 credit hours, drawing on at least two different disciplines from the following list:

- 2643
- 3306
- 33 6
- 3213
- 3223

00 6()4()5()5() 5 / 37

